THE HOPELESS CAUSE.

The difficulty which the demogratic con met with in finding men to accept places on their county and legislative title, sheriff for Norder, is true, but be has also and the shill greater definity which the been's very expensive one for the county, as intelligent centra committee has had in keeping the original nominees ion, andwhere all efforts ifailed—in securing subst nies, is a certain prophecy of defeat Hon John M Gearm, who was the special favorite of his party for senatorial candidate, postand to stand, being t'red of the bitterness of failure and unwilling again to waste time and money in a hopeless cause Mr Bithingan declined to open convention, a did others Mr Sitton, not being present. was then nominated, and though he declined to be a candidate, and so said in a let er to the convention, his name was set up as one of the lambs for slaughter. Saveral other genen, in the defenseless position of ab seniers, were then numicated, and the convention adjourned without groups time for withdrawell Here the trials of the intelligent committee began. Mr Sitton with he wouldn't, but was only able to empress the fact upon the ustalligent committee by a good deal of hard and post tive talk. The intelligent, committee then cast about for a substitute and fell upon Mr. R B Curry, who being accustomed to a disestrous outcome of his official aspirations whould not they thought, suffer greatly from the certain failure. Mr C, of course, object ed, but under much pressure yielded. The next kick came for Mri D W Taylor, candidate for surveyor Athough parannally very popular, having been appointed by a Will Open at 45 Morr son St. republican mayor and elected by a republican council as city surveyor for a series of terms he sees the hopelessness of democratic can didacy, and now positively sections.
